

Wayne County Economic Survival Fair

“How to Survive in Today’s Trying Times”

If you have been laid off work or your hours have been cut, and you don’t know where to turn for help, then stop by the Economic Survival Fair.

Representatives will be available to discuss unemployment registration, food stamps, finances, smart shopping, cooking on a budget, skills training, and more.

Stop by to learn what resources are available to help you through the current economic situation.

INFO SESSIONS

- 💰 12:30 p.m. Back to School: And I Haven’t Taken a Test in 20 Years!
- 💰 1:30 p.m. Money Management in These Difficult Times
- 💰 2:30 p.m. Smart Shopping & Cooking on a Budget
- 💰 3:30 p.m. I Have Skills & A Great Idea: Should I Go Into Business?

★ Resource Booths will be staffed to answer questions and provide information about signing up for unemployment insurance, TAA, Healthy Indiana Program (health insurance), food stamps and a wide variety of community services.

Thursday,
June 18, 2009

12:00 noon – 4:30 p.m.

Ivy Tech Community College
McDaniel Hall

2357 Chester Blvd.
Richmond IN

Cooperating Organizations Include

For information or directions contact:
Bob Hansen at
Wayne County Economic Development
Phone: 765-983-4769
E-mail: bhansen@edcwc.com
www.edcwc.com