

Women With Purpose Endowment Fund of the Wayne County Foundation

Our Mission

To provide funding and assistance to enhance the lives of women in Wayne County, Indiana.

Grant-making Process

The Women With Purpose Endowment Fund grant guidelines and priorities are simple and straightforward. The Fund seeks proposals that carry out their purpose: to support local nonprofits with special emphasis on organizations that provide services to enhance the lives of women.

Application Process

The Women's Leadership Conference committee members will review and evaluate grant applications on an annual basis. Selection will be based on the following elements:

- ❖ Applicant must be a 501(c)(3) organization in good standing with the IRS, operating in or for the benefit of women in Wayne County, Indiana;
- ❖ Applicant must request a grant for a project or program which is addressing a need or providing a service that specifically meets the mission of the fund;
- ❖ The project or program must result in a sustained or discernable impact; and
- ❖ Although all grants will be considered, we suggest a maximum request of $400.

Grants and all attachments must be compiled into one file and submitted via email to: Rachel Hughes at rachel@WayneCountyFoundation.org no later than September 17, 2019.

Incomplete applications will not be considered for funding.
